GORE OFFERS REVENUE BILL

Tea Tax Would Bring $9,000,000 and Automobile Duty $5,000,000

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—The revenue measure proposed by Senator Gore of Oklahoma would yield the government $10,000,000, according to a report made by the treasury department. A duty of 10 cents per pound on tea would bring $9,000,000; a duty of 1 1/2 cents per pound on sugar would produce $740,000, and with a 20 per cent reduction on Cuban sugars it would be $60,000,000; an excise tax of 1 cent per pound on sugar produced in the United States and the island possessions would produce $41,000,000, and an excise tax of 25 cents per horsepower on the production of automobiles to be paid by the manufacturer would produce $5,250,000. The figures given are estimates on last year's production.

Senator Gore is opposed to the administration's schedule of taxes proposed recently which includes extension of the income tax, a tax on gasoline, combustion engines, etc.

A meeting of salesmen for National Refining Company was held in small banquet room of Lee Hawkins at 6 o'clock Tuesday morning.

STATE CLOSES ITS EVIDENCE

Attorney General Freeling Wound Up Oklahoma's Fight for Riverbed

GOVERNMENT REBUTS

Francis J. Kearful Consumes Practically All Tuesday Morning for U. S.

FIGHTING for a state of $10,000,000, Francis J. Kearful, assistant United States attorney general, Tuesday morning began the refutation of the evidence introduced by the state of Oklahoma in the hearing of the Arkansas riverbed cases before Judge John H. Carter in United States district court. The state closed its case late Monday afternoon. One witness, Assistant Engineer Van Francis, of the office of the U. S. engineering department at Little Rock, Ark., had been pressed on the stand up to 10:30 Tuesday morning by the government.

Attorney General Price-Freeling attempted to secure damages admissions from the witness under cross-examination, but Van Francis retained his composure throughout the grilling questioning.

Practically the whole of the government's rebuttal tended toward disproving the contention of the state that the Arkansas is navigable above Fort Gibson, Okla.

Letters written by President Wilson, Attorney General Geiger, Secretary of War Garrison, as well as by heads of various other departments subordinate to them were read by the government. About forty of these communications were submitted to the court by Mr. Kearful.

It is probable that Tuesday afternoon, following the conclusion of the rebuttal by the government, the state may attempt a summing up of evidence and rebuttal.

A review of the case by Justice Carter will take some time and it was the opinion of court attaches that the decision in the case would not be handed down until some time during the coming term, or federal court at Guthrie.

SOCIALISTS IN STATE MEETING

More Than 300 Delegates Attend Annual Convention of Party in Capital

WITH more than 300 delegates in attendance and possibly 100 visiting members, the socialist state convention, which held its first meeting Tuesday morning at 10:30 in the assembly room on the fourth floor of the Temple at Broad and Second started off with enthusiasm. The convention is to continue through Wednesday and Thursday.

The morning session was consumed by the election of temporary officers and the appointment of committees. E. S. Hart of Midlet was selected from the group as temporary chairman, and Mrs. J. E. Osborne of Oklahoma City as temporary secretary. The chairman for each day is elected at the opening of every session so that wrangling for this office is eliminated.

As soon as the delegates had been seated, committees on credentials and the rights of those present and not late before the meeting got down to business.

Then began the selection of the committee on rules and order of business, committee on legislative program, committee on party tactics and organization, committee on constitution, committee on resolutions and committee on party press.

Following the selection of these bodies it is probable that State Secretary H. M. Sinclair will make his annual report.

Every delegate in attendance was asked about the political outlook for 1916 and it was the current assertion that the Socialist party in Oklahoma had grown from the 52,000 votes represented at the last gubernatorial election to 70,000.

Later in the convention, probably on the last day, the committee on constitution will report its recommendations and action will be taken by the body. No forecast of what any of the planks of the constitution would be could be obtained Tuesday morning. It is said the Socialists will be the only party in the state to have a written constitution.

Judge E. R. Hughes of Sapulpa, named by Chief Justice M. J. Kane to hear $100,000 county bonds case at Muskogee, has been advised of the death of his father, Capt. A. C. Richards, 86, of Eufaula, Ky. He was a Confederate veteran and was engaged in business in Muskogee most of the time from 1861 to 1912.

No sitting of the supreme court was held Tuesday. The body will not sit until January 11.

Resigning his position as cotton station for Oklahoma county, Leo A. Masterson has gone to Washington, D. C. His last report shows 4,486 bales of cotton ginned in December, as against 14,338 ginned to same date last year.
